PREFACE.

It is the purpose of this book to provide a more complete and comprehensive directory of the town of Dalton, Massachusetts, than has yet been published. It is the intention to include the name of every man, woman and child in the town, grouping them in families and giving occupation and residence. The Directory has been compiled with great care and thoroughness, and we believe will be found accurate up to date of going to press and exceptionally free from the errors which are customary and almost inevitable in such works. The pictures of churches and public buildings, and the miscellaneous information given will make the Directory a most valuable and attractive souvenir of Dalton, and will commend it to all who are in any way interested in this goodly town.

J. J. Bastion, dealer in all kinds of Ladies', Gent's, Children's, and Misses' Footwear, all sizes, all widths, Prices the Lowest, 49 North Street, Pittsfield, Mass. Considering the important influence that is exerted by what is worn on the feet—not only on one's personal appearance, but also in one's health as well—it is not surprising that many people should find it harder to select a durable pair of shoes than any other article of dress, therefore in order to obtain reliable and satisfactory foot covering dependence must be placed in the dealer, and when we say Mr. J. J. Bastion guards the interests of his customers as though they were his own, we only voice the opinion of many of those familiar with his business methods. Mr. Bastion understands his business thoroughly having had six years practical experience in a shoe factory and is thus able to protect his customer's interest. This establishment was originally founded by Mr. M. H. Hunt, who conducted the business for a short time. Since 1887, it has been under the sole control of Mr. Bastion, who is a native of this town, and very well-known, having served two terms as a City Councilman, also being a member of Fire Department and having served as foreman. The premises utilized are located at No. 49 North Street, comprise two floors 20x150 feet in size, and boots and shoes of all kinds are handled, including ladies', gents', children's and misses' footwear, all sizes, all widths, prices the lowest. Three assistants, who are courteous and polite, are employed, so that all callers are assured prompt attendance. The proprietor of this store warrants every article leaving his establishment to prove as represented, in every respect.

E. M. Miller, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Oysters, Fish, Fruit, Game, Etc., No. 13 West street, Pittsfield, Mass. It is considered as one of the axioms of business that excellent goods can always be obtained by those who are willing to pay for them, but as a matter of fact this does not invariably prove to be the case, for there is doubtless not one among our readers but what has found difficulty at times in securing first-class goods at any price. Take it in the matter of fish alone, and every experienced purchaser knows that there are dealers who, while quoting the highest market rates, still do not handle really first-class goods excepting occasionally. On the other hand, there are some who follow an opposite policy, and among these must justly be placed Mr. E. M. Miller, for he spares no pains to supply his customers with the choicest goods obtainable, and at the same time quotes prices which will compare favorably with those of dealers by no means so careful in this respect. This enterprise was founded by Messrs. Kells & Miller, who were succeeded in March, 1892, by the present proprietor. He is a native of New York, and so far has built up quite a thriving and desirable trade, both wholesale and retail The premises utilized are located at No. 13 West street, measure 30x50 feet in size, and the stock dealt in comprises oysters, fish, fruit, game, etc. Three assistants are employed, so that all orders are filled promptly. It is safe to say that when Mr. Miller cannot supply a certain article in the line of fish it is not to be had in the Pittsfield market, and it is also safe to assert that at no establishment in town is better value given for money received.

It Beats All

But it is a fact that one dollar's worth of

will do you more good than $10 worth of Sarsaparilla. Hydren's Compound Sulphur Troches purify the blood through their action on liver and kidneys.

Ask your Dalton druggist for them; if he has not got them you can get all you want at DATLON, MASS.

Dalton Village, 1,197 feet above sea level, is situated on the east branch of the Housatonic river, in Berkshire County, on the main line of the Boston & Albany R. R., 146 miles from Boston, 47 miles from Springfield, 5 miles from Pittsfield, 56 miles from Albany. Famous for the manufacture of superior papers, shoes, woolen and cotton goods, and as a summer resort, its fame has spread far and wide. Population 3025.

POINTS OF INTEREST.

Wahconah Falls.—Most romantic and delightful attraction of Dalton, a wild little cascade, two miles from the village. Wahconah Falls Park has a good sized pavillion, and from the piazza is obtained a fine view of the falls, so near at hand that the spray is blown into the faces of the delighted visitor. Wahconah Falls has a history, graphically told in the legends given in "Taconic."

Wizard's Glen.—Situated 1½ miles away in the western part of the town, known as the "Gulf." an the road leading to Lanesboro. This glen was the place where the priests of the Indian tribe made their incantations and slew their victims as a sacaifice to their god; one large rock is know as the Devi's Altar.

Mount Weston.—The view from Mount Weston, two miles drive from the village center, is exceedingly fine. Here Governor Weston has his chalet, a log house, where parties of his friends are entertained from time to time.
